MOTHER-IN-LAW DAY PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS Mothers-in-law are the mothers of our wives and husbands and the grandmothers of our children, and therefore, important members of our family group, and

WHEREAS it is important that this relationship be recognized as as most difficult one and

WHEREAS it is necessary that better understanding of the mother-in-law position in the family group be fostered so that mothers-in-law and families can adapt themselves accordingly, and the happiest relationship possible attained, and

WHEREAS Miss Spring Byington, star of the "December Bride" television series and chairman of the Committee for Mother-in-Law Day, has brought to my attention the desire of the committee to have designated a special day in each year on which American families can give thought and consideration to the fostering of a better relationship, and at the same time, express deep respect for these mothers-in-law who have successfully adapted themselves as beloved and respected members of the family group, and whereas, the committee for Mother-in-law Day has recommended the third Sunday in April,

THEREFORE, I JOE FOSS Governor of the State of South Dakota do hereby proclaim that the 20th day of April, 1958, shall be known and observed as MOTHER IN LAW DAY throughout the State, and do call upon each of our citizens to appropriately observe this date, and call upon all concerned to improve their family relationship with acts and tokens of love and understanding.

PROCLAMATION signed this this 17 day of April 1958.
